1Spatial solutions automate even the most complex processes for the management, integration and manipulation of spatial data. Our enterprise-wide, rules-based approach puts ownership and control firmly in your hands. The experience and knowledge of your experts is encapsulated in a central set of user-managed rules that are repeatable, objective and consistently applied. Your experts are therefore freed up to focus on driving innovation and the time and expense of effective data stewardship is dramatically reduced.
- Local Updates. Round table group discussion.
- Set next meeting Date and Adjourn.

Second GIS Day Planning Committee meeting to follow
